MAD MUMBLINGS

Dear Editors,

To you our thanks. In our school there is an E.C. fan. He is a raving, ranting, rampaging, roving, slithering, slobbering, senseless maniac. He goes down the halls turning flips, hollering Hooooohahhh, and otherwise making an idiot of his crazy self. He goes to all extremes to get attention, even if it means climbing up on a desk and diving off on his pointed little head. But then once a month, in comes MAD, and for a whole day he is quiet as a bird while he sits around and drools over MAD. We want to thank you for a wonderful comic book that gives us a day of rest. Too bad you can't make MAD a daily.—Blue Beathard—Kirbyville, Tex.

I just read MAD and I thought the auto-seat advertisement was good.—Rocky Colasanti—Detroit, Mich.

We of SPAMWF (Society for the Prevention of Abuse and Misuse of the Word "Furshluginer") strongly object to the misuse of the word "furshluginer" in your stories. You have distorted the true meaning of this word by associating it with such terrible words as "porzobie." Please don't.—Burl Moss, Pres. SPAMWF—Detroit, Mich.

I have just read your smoking test and now I am the proud owner of no head. I have a joke: Hans and his parents are taking a walk. His Ma falls over a cliff. His Pa says, "Look Hans, no Ma!"—(no name given)

Last week my best friend informed me that in his work he finds gobs and gobs of issues of MAD. The next day I got a job with him, and now I am living happily ever after with a warehouse full of MAD magazines.—Stan the Garbage Man—(no address)

We have been reading and enjoying MAD for quite some time now and we haven't found much wrong with it, but even so, we have one gripe. We really think that scape-goating and fun-poking at any Race, Religion, Color or Creed is unnecessary. MAD hasn't much of this, but we all agree that Chop Chop of The Black and Blue Hawks in MAD No. 5 was portrayed as a very bad picture of the Chinese people and was shown as inferior to the other characters in the strip. We aren't saying that things like happen very often in MAD, but we're sorry that a good mag such as MAD has to let it happen at all.—Robert Glaberson—Brooklyn, N.Y.

We are sorry if reader Glaberson or anyone else interpreted our story's purposes as such. Actually, we are and were very conscious of the evils of race prejudice even as we wrote the aforementioned story.—ed

I used to think your comic-books were O.K., but now I think it's time you guys started to grow up. It was all right just throwing junk in your books and trying to sell them to kids who are low in mentality as you are, but since the new edition came out with the picture of the Madonna on it with one of your screwed-up comic books in her hand, it is going a bit too far. Have guys gotten so hard-up and ignorant for those comic-books that you have to print a picture of her on your front cover? Don't get me wrong. It's not the picture that I'm mad about but what the picture stands for. But I guess you guys have not the brains to figure that out.—Frank Smith—(no address)

MAD'S No. 14 cover is the famous Mona Lisa by Leonardo Da Vinci and has no connection with any religious figure whatever.—ed

... If Mrs. Harriette K. Vandenburg of New Haven, Conn. (Mad Mumbblings, MAD No. 14) is right, she must have been on a steady diet of MAD for over 40 years. If you want my opinion, which I am sure you don't, I think that MAD is the height of intellectualism.—Gilbert O'Connell—Blairtown, N.J.

In reading issue No. 14, I read, as I always do, the Mad Mumbblings section. I have not had the good fortune of being a MAD fan for very long, (about six months), but I bristled when I read Mrs. Vandenburg's letter. I have, from the onset, been a firm believer that all of the humor in MAD can be appreciated by the very young reader, but I also believe that there isn't, and there never has been anything in MAD that could be in any way considered a detriment. I myself am a comic-book hater, but MAD is more than a comic-book. MAD is a publication that makes its readers stay on their toes to get all the humor. But back to Mrs. Vandenburg. Madam, you must think your son is a weak-willed moron, or a blithering idiot if you think he and others like him will be led to a life of crime by this magazine. I believe you will find that the age-group that reads MAD is considerably older than that for any comic-book. In closing, I would like to say that this is one adult reader who is not an idiot.—Phillip Loch—Taylorville, Ill.

Consistent with our past practice of devoting this page to a serious analysis of the situation of the world today and how it affects us, we present still another article taking up this subject. In the past, we have had analysts representing the bigger nations presenting their views. However, this time we thought we might turn to one of the small nations for their view since we deem the small view just as important as the big view and after all a small view can be very informative by contrast and so we present this small view from the small country, this small view entitled...

Please rush me the 3 books I have checked below, as my gift books and first selection. You will bill me only $1 (plus few cents shipping charges) for all three, and enroll me as a member of the Science-Fiction Book Club. Every month send me the Club's free bulletin, "Things to Come," so that I may decide whether or not I wish to receive the coming monthly selection described therein. For each book I accept, I will pay only $1 plus a few cents shipping charge. I do not have to take a book every month (only four during each year I am a member)—and I may resign at any time after accepting four selections.
