I'M AS ANXIOUS TO FIGHT AIR POLLUTION AS ANYONE--

BUT IF OCK'S STILL ALIVE, HE HAS TO COME FIRST!

HE COULD BE ANYWHERE... WAITING TO STRIKE AT ANY TIME!

SO! THEY THINK ME DEAD, DO THEY?

THAT'S JUST THE WAY I WANT IT!

THEY MUSTN'T EXPECT MY NEXT ATTACK!

AND, MOST OF ALL, SPIDER-MAN MUSTN'T EXPECT IT!

HE'S INTERFERED WITH MY PLANS FOR THE FINAL TIME!

BUT HE'LL INTERFERE WITH ME NO LONGER!

I KNOW THAT HE'S HIDDEN SOMEWHERE
IN THIS CITY--

AND SOONER OR LATER I'LL FIND HIM-- AND CRUSH HIM-- FOREVER!

AND,
SPEAKING OF OUR LITTLE WALL-CRAWLER--

SO FAR, SO GOOD!

I MADE IT TO THE ROOF
UNSEEN!

IF ONLY THE REST OF MY JOB COULD BE SO EASY!

BUT, EASY OR NOT, I CAN'T BACK DOWN!

IF OCK STILL LIVES, NO ONE IS SAFE UNTIL I FIND HIM---

AND EVEN THEN,
FINDING HIM IS ONLY THE BEGINNING!

I'LL HAVE TO DEFEAT THE DEADLIEST KILLER I'VE EVER FACED!

AND IF I FAIL,
THERE'LL BE NO SECOND CHANCE!

A PANDEMONIOUS PLETHORA OF PERPLEXING PRONOUNCEMENTS, PASSIONATELY PREPARED AND PHILOSOPHICALLY PROFERRED!

ITEM! Let's face it—this is probably mighty Marvel's proudest and most crucial hour! Even here, at the world-famous House of Ideas, we've never made so many sudden, cataclysmic changes; or taken so many unexpected, unprecedented gambles! Never before has any leading magazine company dared to switch the artist line-ups of some of the world's best-selling mags! But, despite our countless other faults, we've never been accused of being timid... and the announcements that follow will show you why—

ITEM! JOHNNY ROMITA, the man whose artistic genius has helped guide SPIDER-MAN into the position of the world's most popular single superhero, will now be penciling the world's greatest comic magazine—the fabulous FANTASTIC FOUR, aided and abetted by the dynamic new inking sensation, JUMBO JOHNNY VERPOORTEN! For sheer, pulsating power—for spine-tingling scenes that stagger the imagination—combined with biting satire and raw, rugged realism from the pen of STAN LEE, you dare not miss the new, greater-than-ever version of the world's most honored comic magazine—the titanic team that ushered in the Marvel Age of Comics—the one, the only, FANTASTIC FOUR!

ITEM! Though he's now the ramrod of the F.F. art team, JAZZY JOHNNY has not forsaken the area of his greatest triumph—THE AMAZING SPIDER-MAN. Instead, he will continue as artist-emeritus, guiding the progress of the titanicly talented GIL KANE, who was the Jazzy One's personal choice to succeed him as Spidey's permanent penciller. Even if you're one of SUGAR-LIPS KANE'S countless fans, you're still in for a startling surprise when you see how magnificently he's cap-

STAN'S SOAPBOX

For those of you who keep track of such minutiae, it's been about ten years since the Marvel Age of Comics first exploded upon the literary scene. They've been good years, exciting years, years of challenge and achievement. But now, as we face our second decade as the world's most popular purveyors of illustrated fiction, the challenges are greater than ever—though, hopefully, our achievements will be greater, too. We're now faced with the task of proving that our past success wasn't merely a flash-in-the-pan; of proving that we can once again rekindle the excitement, the wonder, and the dazzling dynamism that have made Marvel a household word wherever magazines are read. We hope we can do it. We think we can do it. We're gonna knock ourselves out trying to do it. But, win lose or draw we'll be giving it the best we've got—and we hope you'll be with us every inch of the way. Sure, we're proud of the past, but like we always say—the best is just ahead!

Excelsior!

Stan Lee

tured the spirit and the excitement which only STAN THE MAN'S web-spinning wonder can muster! But hold onto your hat, heroic one—there's more a'comin'—

ITEM! BIG JOHN BUSCEMA, who has become one of comicdom's all-time greats in the few short years he's made his mark at Marvel, is so much into the mighty AVENGERS that he and ROY THOMAS have lifted it high into the ranks of the world's best-selling superhero teams. In order to allow our bold and bearded master-penciller enough time to really concentrate on the awesome assemblers, and to do justice to the Rascally One's magnificently thrill-packed story lines, we've given him a leave-of-absence from THE SILVER SURFER—allowing the unique, hard-hitting style of HERB TRIMPE to give the spaceborn skyryder a new direction, and a brand-new majesty—not to mention the fact that STAN THE MAN promises a totally different image for the Surfer, as he reaches a fateful turning point in his own fabled career!

ITEM! For those of you who've demanded the return of NEFARIOUS NEAL ADAMS, we bow to your wishes, as always—in what is probably the most unexpected, yet logical change-over of all. Realizing the majestic quality of Neal's inimitable artwork—the dramatic impact of his powerful penciling—and the larger-than-life emotions his drawings can generate—we've brought about the most long-awaited team-up of all, as NEAL ADAMS will bring to life the saga of the mighty THOR—as only Stan can write it! STAN LEE, writer—NEAL ADAMS, artist—ASGARD, the setting—GLORY AND GRANDEUR, the scope—and literature and legend may never be the same again!

ITEMS! We have to be brief now, 'cause space is running out. CONAN THE BARBARIAN debuts this month. Miss it at your own risk! Also, watch for the SPIDER-MAN KING-SIZE, the FANTASTIC FOUR KING-SIZE, the X-MEN KING-SIZE, our latest giant publication FRIGHT, and the SPECIAL MARVEL EDITION, featuring—aww, why not try to guess?—And all the above stuff is just for starters! THE MARVEL COMICS GROUP, SECOND FLOOR 625 MADISON AV., NEW YORK, N. Y. 10022

Dear Stan and John,

I have been an ardent Spidey supporter since the summer of 1963, ish #4, at the age of 6½. I have made a minor research project. The results are quite stunning, at least to me.

In issues #73-83, Spidey broke laws at least 50 times: 13 illegal entries, 4 assaults (not counting self-defense), 9 assaults and batteries, 8 disturbances of the peace, 14 destructions of private property, 1 count of destruction of public property, 1 count of aiding and abetting a criminal and countless littering violations.

This is 5 crimes per ish, ¼ a page and one twentieth per panel. Don't get me wrong, I'm not complaining. Do what you want; I trust you blindly. Heck, I just want a no-prize.

Danny Beller, 4555 Henry Hudson Pkwy.
Bronx, N.Y. 10471

Danny, who are we to doubt the assiduous labors of our most loyal Spideophiles? Just the same, however, we're a bit skeptical about a few of the items you mentioned above — since Spidey is not exactly a hardened lawbreaker. Thus, instead of trying to answer these charges directly, we'll simply ask you to recite these violations in more detail at some future date — and then we'll try to go into them and see if, indeed, our wondrous web-spinner has accidentally been breaking as many laws as he's been defending. Don't let us down, hear? You know how we worry about these things.

Dear Stan and John,

I must say that SPIDER-MAN #84 and 85 have been the most enjoyable comics I have read in ages.

I noticed one thing in particular that you did differently from past issues. That is to put a word balloon on the cover! This is fine with me, and I hope you keep it up. It adds to the action instead of just seeing two or three figures. Also, you had a little flash back on the first page for all those who missed #84. Right? Personally, since I buy every ish of SPIDER-MAN, I could care less about this. But I suppose it would be needed for those who aren't careful followers of Spidey. At least you guys are always experimenting to see what the readers like best!

Now, the art is just about the best in Marvel if not THE best. There is a great deal of detail (which shows you have pride in your not notch titles) and with more panels, you can't go wrong! The coloring seems to have improved, but maybe it is just my imagination.

I never thought for a second that the Schemer was the Kingpin's son. Even after reading through the entire explanation, the unmasking panel had good effect. Keep coming up with stories like this, and you'll have a lot more followers! Still, I sort of hope that is all we see of the Kingpin for a good long while as I feel he has been overexposed lately.

Now, Stan, please make your answers to letters in the letters column more definite. It is getting to the point where I just skip over the letters. Although I DO like this sort of column run in a loose manner, a little more formality on your part would do it a great deal of good. If someone asks you a specific question, by all means, answer it! I also get somewhat bored with people who are always pointing out things like: "Dear Stan, on page 5, panel 6, Pete is wearing his wrist watch on his left hand. I always thought he was right-handed. What's the scoop?" You know what I mean. I prefer to read letters by people who discuss the art and general format of the comic.

I think your idea of holding a poll to see what Marvel comics and artists are the favorites is a great idea. The only complaint I have, is that you print the darned ballot on the back of a Spidey page that would have to be cut from the story. Couldn't you have printed it on the back of an ad section or something? I guess you figure everyone will have to buy TWO issues of his favorite magazine to vote, so he won't have to deface his mag! Well, I just answered all the questions in a separate piece of paper. Fair enough?

Well gang, that's about all I've got to say this time around. I'm looking forward to future issues of SPIDER-MAN and will probably send a LOC along as each issue progresses. Lots of Luck!

Dave Schelly, 2211 Carol Drive
Lewiston, Idaho 83501

Thanks, Dave. And don't worry about your ballot in our little poll not being counted because you preferred to use a reasonable facsimile instead of the real thing. Countless other Marvelites did the same thing, since the thought of defacing one of our mixed-up masterworks obviously appalled them as much as it did you. Actually, though, we weren't trying to be perverse in putting that ballot on the back of a story-page; it's just that, since our books have a pre-determined layout of where each page and ad must go, that was the only space available in the whole furlough-ginger book.

Dear Stan and John,

I have never written you a letter complaining about errors you have made because I feel it is useless to be so petty (actually, I never notice them). However, in SPIDER-MAN #84 I have picked up two errors that must be explained (in whatever manner possible).

First of all, why didn't Spidey use his webbing to get a secure hold on the Schemer's car? Even if he would have forgotten to do so the first time, he surely would have thought of it the second time. He usually learns by his mistakes.

Secondly, if Spider-Man is so strong, why didn't his strength protect him from the cold? He complained about being cold on pages 4 and 5. Then again, if the cold does bother him, how was he able to track the Schemer after having been ditched in the water on page 15. He re-appears soon after this at the home of the Kingpin. It is still winter outside. He should have been in real "cold water" after the dunking.

Let's see how you get out of these. Until Stan comes up with a legitimate solution to a problem, Make Mine Marvel.

Mark Burns, Thayer 2-Harvard College
Cambridge, Mass. 02138

That hurts, Mark — the intimation that Our Leader would consider dodging a question from one of our loyal readers! (Not that is isn't true, you understand — it just hurts to have somebody mention it!)

We're not sure just why Spidey didn't try using his webbing in the situation you mention above — unless it's just that he wasn't thinking too swiftly that day. However, in answer to your second query, super-strength (even spider-strength) is hardly a protection from the elements. However, when a joe like Spidey is hot on the trail of a baddie like the Kingpin, his adrenalin obviously comes into play — so that, though he's hardly immune to the cold, he shrugs off its effects long enough to complete his mission. After that, though we've got a feeling that he hurried home to a nice warm bath — and, knowing our accident-prone wall-crawler, probably to a good stiff case of the sniffles, as well!

CONAN THE BARBARIAN!

Norman Rockwell—America's most beloved artist. He is a founder and member of the Guiding Faculty of the Famous Artists School.

printing firm, doing exciting creative work.

Oregon housewife Helen Tryk lives 150 miles from the nearest big city. But she does fashion illustration, has her own studio, runs an art work shop, does portraits.

A plan to help others

It started over 18 years ago when a group of America's most successful artists—men like Albert Dorne, Norman Rockwell, Jon Whitcomb, Al Parker and Stevan Dohanos—met in New York City. They knew that all over America there were people who liked to draw who could be turned into good artists. Albert Dorne asked, "Why can't we give these people the training they need—including all the trade secrets and know-how we've learned over the years?"

He suggested a new kind of art school—a home study art school—that would give talented people the best professional art training, no matter where they live.

The famous artists agreed. Taking time from their busy careers, they created a remarkable series of art lessons covering every aspect of drawing and painting. They illustrated their lessons with over 5,000 "here's-how" illustrations. The lessons start from scratch and cover every skill a top artist needs. Finally, they developed a wonderful way to give each student personal correction and advice all through his training.

The famous artists with the School are not surprised at the success of their students. The opportunities open to successful artists today are enormous. The School continually gets calls from all over the country asking for practical well-trained students—not geniuses—who can step into full-time or part-time art jobs. And practical, thorough training is what the School offers.

Famous Artists Talent Test

To find others with art talent worth developing, the Famous Artists created a 12-page Talent Test. Thousands paid to take this test, but now the School offers and grades it free. Men and women who do well on the test—or offer other sufficient evidence of art talent—may enroll in the School. But there's no obligation. Simply mail the coupon.

'We're looking for people who like to draw' says Norman Rockwell

Today hundreds of men and women who never thought they could be artists are working at easels and drawing boards, making pictures and getting well paid for it. They all can thank a group of famous artists who have devoted much of their time and talent to helping others find success in art.

Some of the people the Famous Artists have helped

Carl Kock was an 18-year-old apprentice in a Chicago art studio when he enrolled. Today he prepares ads for such companies as General Motors and Firestone—has won five gold medals.

Howard Sanden of Minneapolis took the Course while still in high school. He is now a successful artist—recently he and his wife traveled through Europe and the Middle East on important art assignments.

Paul Sullivan enrolled at 14. His Famous Artists training helped him work his way through college.

Kathleen Girona of Indiana, Pennsylvania, was an 18-year-old salesgirl in a department store. She still works for a department store, but now it's as an advertising artist and fashion illustrator.

Before his Famous Artists training, Anthony Fotia was a mail clerk, "stuck" in a low-pay routine job. Today, he's an artist for an important

SOME QUESTIONS ANSWERED

- Q. How is it possible? It seems incredible to be able to get all the equipment shown above in just ten kits — at only $4.95 per kit!
- A. The direct-to-you, "no middleman", club plan is just part of the answer. The other key is ABC's Club's especially designed multi-use equipment. For example: the Microprojector quickly and easily converts into the Spectroscope, Photo Enlarger and Cloud Chamber Illuminator. Similarly, the Transit doubles as a Telescope Mount. Such multi-purpose design... plus club plan economy... makes possible this all-science program at a price everyone can afford.
- Q. May members choose the order in which they receive their kits?
- A. Yes. With the first kit members receive a list of the equipment and projects contained in each of the remaining nine kits. With this information they are able to choose the kit sequence that best suits their particular interest.
- Q. Are special tools or skills required?
- A. No. All you need are pliers and screwdriver. No soldering — new connectors make fast, firm joints. All equipment easy to use.

NO OBLIGATION—NO RISK!
