The secret of teaching yourself music

Why keep depriving yourself of the thrill of making your own music?

Here's a pleasant way to learn at home in spare time. You play simple familiar tunes right from the start, then more advanced compositions.

Choose piano, guitar or spinet organ.

No gimmicks—you learn to read notes, play regular sheet music.

It really works! Thousands now play who never could.

It may seem odd at first — the idea of teaching yourself music. You might think you need a private teacher at $4 to $10 per hour to stand beside you and explain everything you should do — and to tell you when you've made a mistake.

But surprising as it seems, you need no such thing. Thousands of people just like you have taught themselves to play with the U.S. School of Music courses. By mail. And you can too.

With our lessons, you learn to play the right way — by note from regular sheet music. Without any gadgetry or gimmickry. And all it costs you is just pennies a day.

You don't need any previous musical training. Our lessons start you off "from scratch" with clear, word-and-picture instructions. A lot of the songs you practice first are simple tunes you've heard many times. And since you already know how these tunes are supposed to sound, you can tell immediately when you've "got them right."

Then you go on to more advanced pieces. By this time you can tell if your notes and timing are right, even without ever having heard the songs before. Sooner than you might think possible, you'll be able to play whatever kind of music you like. Folk. Popular. Classical. Show and dance tunes. Hymns.

You learn in your spare time, in the privacy and comfort of your own home. There's no one standing over you to make you nervous. And because you teach yourself, you can set your own pace. You're free to spend as much time mastering any lesson as you wish.

How effective are the lessons? Ask Jeffrey Livingston of York, Pa. "I thought the organ course was excellent," he writes. "I knew almost nothing about playing an instrument before I enrolled. Now I can play not only the organ, but the piano too. My new music ability has enabled me to play at churches and small conventions. I am even considering making music my career."

Another recent graduate, Cecelia Feeney of Vineland, N.J. reports: "It's like a dream come true. Knowing how to play the piano and read music has given me new self-confidence."

If you've ever dreamed of being able to play the piano, the guitar, or the spinet organ, why not learn more about our convenient, economical way to learn? Send for our free booklet Be Your Own Music Teacher. With it we'll include a free "Note-Finder." There's no obligation. Just mail the coupon to the U.S. SCHOOL OF MUSIC. A Home Study School Since 1898, 417 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois 60605.

SOON AFTER, BACK IN MANHATTAN...

NOT SURE WHAT THOSE CLOWNS IN THE COPTER WERE AFTER-- BUT I CAN'T WORRY ABOUT THAT NOW.

RIGHT NOW, I'M GOING TO BUY SOME FLOWERS-- AND TRY TO PATCH THINGS UP WITH A CERTAIN MARY JANE WATSON.

C'MON, PRETTY LADY-- OPEN THE DOOR.

I'VE GOT A LOT I WANT TO SAY TO YOU.

NO ANSWER.

WELL, MAYBE SHE'S IN THE SHOWER... OR MAYBE SHE'S DRYING HER HAIR... OR MAYBE...

...MAYBE SHE'S JUST NOT HOME!

THE WALK BACK TO PETER PARKER'S CHELSEA APARTMENT IS A VERY LONG AND LOVELY ONE...

SHE LOVES ME... SHE LOVES ME NOT... SHE LOVES ME... SHE LOVES ME...

...NOT?

AW, WHAT DOES A BUNCH OF STUPID FLOWERS KNOW, ANYWAY?

HUH?

IN THE IMMORTAL WORDS OF MONTY HALL, OL' BUDDY--

SURPRISE!!

ACTUALLY "SURPRISE" WOULD SCARCELY BEGIN TO DESCRIBE PETER PARKER'S FEELINGS AT THE MOMENT.

OVERWHELMED, MIGHT BE MORE LIKE IT.

COMPLETELY ASTONISHED, PERHAPS.

OR MAYBE JUST TOTALLY CONFUSED!

WH-WH-WHAT HAVE YOU DONE TO THIS PLACE?

SO GLORIA ORGANIZED A SPECIAL "PLEASE-PROVIDE-FOR-PETER-PARKER'S-PAD" PARTY.

THE SPIDER'S WEB

© MARVEL COMICS GROUP, 575 MADISON AVE., N.Y.C. 10022

"WHAT WE REALLY MEANT WAS..." DEPT.: In the letters column of SPIDER-MAN #160, responding to a missive from Larry Stefanich, your faithful armadillo gave a detailed dissertation on the Web-slinger's wondrous Spider-sense and its workings, figuring that would be the final word on the subject. Thus, you can imagine our surprise when we suddenly found ourselves literally bombarded with letters taking us to task for seeming inconsistencies in our explanation.

For the sake of posterity (and what's left of our rapidly-graying hair), let's try to clear up this matter once and for all. Now, when we explained that our hero's Spider-sense warns him not of his enemies, but of imminent danger from any source, we meant that to be the situation effective as of that moment. There really isn't much we can do about Spidey sagas of the past that contradict our statement (for themselves for that matter). At best, we can hope to prevent those inconsistencies from occurring again in the future, and that's precisely what we're gonna try to do.

So, please, Faithful Ones, no more missives reminding us that events in SPIDEY #46 or #53 or #117 don't jibe with our statement. We'll all just have to learn to live with them, and do our best to see that they don't happen again.

Okay, True Believer?
Okay!

Len:

The only fitting place to comment on a continued story is at its end. The current Doc Ock/Spidey/Hammerhead adventure is presumably finished with SPIDER-MAN #159. On the whole, it was better written, contained more surprises, and was generally superior to the two previous sequences involving this trio. Still, I find Andru's art unequal to the task of adequately presenting Ock in all his six-armed power. Somehow, Andru is unable to convey the fluidity and force that typified Romita's version of Doctor Octopus.

Hey, isn't it about time Peter Parker obtained some furnishings for his flat?

Ted Longstreth

4020 Seabridge Ave., Orlando, FL 32809

Is this issue soon enough for you, Ted? We've been planning to furnish Pete's pad for several months now (just check out Glory Grant's comment to Pete on page 6, panel 5 of SPIDER-MAN #158), and we think Lively Len and Rip-roarin' Ross have done the job in style.

What do you think, Effendi?

Friends:

SPIDER-MAN #159 wasn't bad at all. So what if the fights were utterly ridiculous? Who cares if the scene of Doc Ock pinning the cooks to the wall with knives was absurd? The main thing was, the story was the best in quite a while.

We'll close with just one request. Sooner or later, Spidey will meet up with Doc Ock for the Big Fight. Just this once, will you please have Doc decorate the wall with Spidey's face?

S.T. & C.

18734 Stahelin, Detroit, MI 48219

Dear Len,

Gee, that Spidey sure is a jerk. If only he'd quit hounding that poor Doc Ock, I get the impression that everything would be all right. But no, he socks him around, makes him drop Aunt May, sabotages his inventions, and generally makes a nuisance of himself. I wish Doc would drop Spidey off some bridge and change the title of the mag to THE AMAZING DOCTOR OCTOPUS. It has a ring to it.

Kim Thompson

24 Avenue de St. Clement, 34000 Montpellier, France

Boy, when Lively Len began the 3-part Spidey/Doc Ock/Hammerhead extravaganza, he fully intended to make Otto Octavius a slightly more sympathetic character, but so sympathetic that some of you have started rooting for him to win? Sheesh, we never thought it would go quite that far.

Seriously, fellas, have any of you considered the possible repercussions of replacing everybody's favorite wall-crawler with our multi-limbed menace? Doc Ock together with another different super-star every month in MARVEL TEAM-UP, we could tolerate. We might even be able to endure a mag called OTTO OCTAVIUS, THE INCREDIBLE DOCTOR OCTOPUS. But we don't think anybody could live with SIX-ARMED SUPER STORIES for very long...do you?

HTD WEAKLY CAMPAIGN UPDATE #2:

---Unless you've dwelt in a cave for the past six months and have confined your reading strictly to rare, out-of-print editions of Lin Carter novels, you're probably aware that Marvel's feathered fury, HOWARD THE DUCK, has flung his battered hat into this year's presidential sweepstakes. This lemon-hued rectangle contains the second in our series of feeble reports on our wondrous waterfowl's winding woad to the White House.

---TRAGEDY STRIKES DUCK CAMPAIGN; Terre Haute, Ind. (UDI) Danger has become a constant companion to presidential hopefuls, and HTD is no exception. Last week, during the course of a single 30-minute address before the Society of Landlocked Seaweed Enthusiasts here in Terre Haute, eleven separate attempts were made to snuff the Duck. Weapons ranged from a letter-bomb skimmed through the air as a paper plane to an exploding cigar with a nuclear triggering device. Ten of these assassination attempts were abortive. The eleventh—involving a bottle of Crazy Glue, a box of Wheat Thins, and an expandable watchband—irreparably scarred one Milos Pitt, a member of the audience. Pitt, already confined to a wheelchair as a result of his participation in the Nixon campaign of '72, found himself directly in the line of fire and unable to dodge. He later commented bitterly, "Sure wish I'd been wearin' one o' them 'Git Down' buttons. Then the watchband would'a bounced right off." Shucks!

---KRASS KOMMERCIALISM KORNER: Yes, you can still attach yourself or your clothing to the Official HTD For President Button pictured above. The price is $1.00 plus 25¢ postage and handling per button.

---KRASS KOMMERCIALISM KORNER, Part Two: If even the button is insufficient to express your fowl ardor, may we recommend our new HTD CAMPAIGN PORTRAIT, produced in association with Magic Mountain Books? Classier than a poster, it's reproduced in subtle sepia on heavy stock, suitable for framing. It, too, is just a buck, plus that inevitable 25¢ for postage and handling. And both the button and portrait are available from Howard's campaign manager:

STAN LEE'S SOAPBOX

Wow! I never thought we'd get so much mail about something that never even appeared in one of our comics! I'm referring, of course, to the avalanche of letters we've received about a certain commercial on television—the one in which I speak up for the Persona razor and blades—which has been all over the tube for the past few months. All of Marveldom Assembled has been bombarding me with the same question, "Why didn't I announce it in the Soapbox so you'd know when and where to see it?" The reason is—I couldn't! I thought it would only be shown for a week or two, and that by the time we could get a notice printed in our mags it would be over. Also, I never know in advance on which program it'll be shown—it seems to be all over the place. But here's a tip—they mostly use it on the major network sports shows. And here's the wildest part of all—remember the part at the end where I jokingly shout "Persona Man!"? Well, so many of you have gotten a charge out of that name that you guessed it—we're thinking of creating a real Persona Man character! And whenever he has a narrow escape, we'll have to refer to it as a "close shave", right? Oh well, that's show biz! Can't write any more now, have to race to the nearest book shop and order a copy of the newest of our "Origins" titles, the big, colorful, third in the series, called: BRING ON THE BAD GUYS! Sure, I'm the guy who wrote it, but you know what a nowhere memory I have—I can't wait to find out whether the good guys or the villains win! So, till Howard the Duck is sworn in as our next President, always remember—wherever you go, whom ever you're with, whatever you do, the eyes of the world are upon you—so keep the faith, hang loose, and THINK MARVEL!

Excelsior!

ITEM! Two brand new blockbusters are headed your way this month and we're so excited about them, we just naturally have to make their announcement the very first tidbit we serve up! What do you do when a character is so popular that two monthly books featuring his adventures only leave most Marvelites screaming for more? Well, you don't do anything until you're one hundred percent certain that you have a writer/artist team available who can maintain the same high standards set on the two books already being published. Then—and only then—you come up with a third monthly title that deftly duplicates all the wonderment of the other two. The writer is GERRY CONWAY. The artists are SAL BUSCEMA and MIKE ESPOSITO. The book is called PETER PARKER, THE SPECTACULAR SPIDER-MAN. And if it is somewhat long on title, it's also just as long on the brand of action and thrills that have made Spider the most popular comics character ever! But we said two blockbusters, right? For the second we have to look 25 years into the future...and to JACK "KING" KIRBY. Assisted by inker/letterer MIKE ROYER, the King has taken the cosmic concepts of the MGM—Stanley Kubrick movie classic, 2001: A SPACE ODYSSEY, and turned them into an off-beat monthly series that's bound to leave you mind-boggled and bedazzled. Yep. Our mammoth Treasury Edition adaptation of the film was only the start! In this all-new, all-original 30¢ comic, Jack expands upon what Kubrick and s-f author Arthur C. Clarke began and weaves a continuing saga that stretches from man's awakening on Earth all the way to his ultimate destiny in the stars. If you crave comics with a difference, this is it!

ITEM! Marvel's Mean Machine continues to roll along on the softball diamonds of Central Park, defeating Viking Press 8 to 7 and easing over Plenum Publishing 21 to 4. Will they keep it up? Will luck and skill continue to prevail? Will the rules committee finally question the presence of a seven feet tall, one thousand pound centerfielder who has green skin and purple pants? Tune in next month, sport fans.

ITEM! As the previous item may clue you, this is being written in the summer, mid-June to be precise. June is traditionally the time of weddings, and, believe it or not, even a mixed-up bunch like the bullpen can sometimes be traditional. So, we have two couples getting married this month: "Humble HOWARD" BENDER, ace letterer of our boisterous British Dept., and his lady JONI REICH plus "Devil-May-Care DOUG" MOENCH and "Dazzling DEBRA" JAMES, long-time teammates already as writer and letterer of our WEREWOLF BY NIGHT book. Congratulations to four very nice folks; best wishes for the future to you all.

ITEM! Coming out at the end of this month from our Black and White dept. is MARVEL PREVIEW #8 which will feature the long promised adaptation of Phillip Wylie's GLADIATOR, under the brand new title of MAN-GOD. The original 1930 novel virtually created the prototype for the modern-day super-hero, and for almost a year now, writer/editor ROY THOMAS has been struggling through various setbacks to finally get it produced in graphic story form. RICH BUCKLER began the artwork, TONY DEZUNIGA completed it; all that's lacking now is your stamp of approval. But once you check it out, we have a hunch that won't be long in coming!

ITEM! If getting ahead in life is your problem (it certainly is your blushing Bullpen's!), September may be just the month for you, because our 1977 Marvel Calendar goes on sale then. Think of the jump that gives you on next year! It also gives you dazzling full-cover illos by JACK KIRBY, JOHN & SAL BUSCEMA, GORGE PÉREZ, GENE COLAN, JOHN ROMITA, JOE SINNOTT and a host of other favorites, plus the wit, cogent comments and mind-teasing Marvel nostalgia quizzes of writer/editor ROY THOMAS. Pick up on it. With all the goodies we've got going in it, it's more than a calendar, it's a whole event!

ITEM! Welcome Wagon time again, good people. If you've been following our CAPT. MARVEL or GUARDIANS OF THE GALAXY series (and surely no true believer will admit to not following them), then you've noticed the fine line work of two new inkers in the Bullpen. Say "hi" to "Timorous TERRY" AUSTIN (of CM) and "Bumprious BOB" WIACEK (who handles GUARDIANS). But don't stop there, because we're also way overdue in extending firm, dry handshakes to "Beaming BETH" BLECKLEY and "Mellow MARY ELLEN" BEVERIDGE, editorial assistants extraordinaire, and to "Nimble NAOMI" BASNER, amiable aid to Operations Vice President "Jolly SOLLY" BRODSKY and no small help as catcher on the bullpen softball team. Glad to have the bunch of ya!
